

The Glenview School Council invites you to join us for an evening with

Dr. Ester Cole

“Raising a Resilient Adolescent”

Tuesday January 17, 2012 at 7 p.m.
Glenview Senior School
Gym

Dr. Cole is a psychologist in private practice, servicing children, adolescents, and parents. She was a psychologist at the Toronto Board of Education for twenty years, sixteen of which were as a supervising psychologist (1984-2000). She has taught at Ontario Institute for Studies in Education and at York University. She is a Registered Psychologist with the Ontario College of Psychologists and the Canadian Register of Health Service Providers in Psychology. Her many leadership positions, include President of the Canadian Association of School Psychologists, Chair of The Psychology Foundation of Canada and President of the Ontario Psychological Association. She has written extensively on resiliency and will provide parents with much to reflect on when parenting their teens.

